

CONSULTANT PROFILE

Colleen Bevenour

RESUME:

- o Over 18 years experience in learning, performance, and coaching
- o Experience in health care, pharmaceutical, and biotechnology sectors
- o B.S., Biology, Fordham University
- o B.S., Philosophy, Fordham University
- o Subject-matter expertise:
 - Management & Leadership Development
 - Communication skills
 - Business Development/Selling Skills
 - Business Acumen
 - Trainer Development
- o Experienced in development of programs for senior leadership in organizations
- o Was VP and Partner, The Brooks Group
- o Was President and Owner, Circinus LLC
- o Was Training manager, trainer, product manager, sales representative for GlaxoSmithKline Pharmaceuticals (SB)
- o Active member of ISPI, ASTD, Leadership Hub

effectPerformance

Instructional design solutions for your learning and performance needs

BIO:

Colleen Bevenour is a performance consultant, learning and development specialist, and Managing Partner of Bevenour, Pretera, and Associates, an affiliate of effectPerformance. Colleen helps organizations align their learning strategy with organizational goals and then capitalizes on her extensive experience in design, development and delivery of skill enhancement initiatives to build curricula that will enable the organization to achieve its objectives. Colleen's subject-matter expertise has been developed through her own successful experiences owning and growing several businesses as well as through over 18 years of enhancing the performance of employees from entry level personnel to the senior leadership of organizations.

ROLES:

- o Performance Consultant
- o Curriculum Designer
- o Instructional Designer
- o Content Developer
- o Facilitator