

Len Crockett

RESUME:

- o Designed and developed websites for San Diego architectural organizations including the American Institute of Architects and the Academy of Neuroscience for Architecture.
- o Developed creative concepts for premiere franchise industry websites including Spring Green lawn-care and Budget Blinds.
- o Engineered organ transplantation patient-information portals for the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center.
- o Conceived and implemented design concepts for a diverse range of consumer products including apparel design, corporate identity and product packaging.

effectPerformance

Instructional design solutions for your learning and performance needs

BIO:

Len Crockett is a graphic designer and web developer who combines his creative and technical abilities for a diverse set of core competencies. With a background in fine art and illustration and broad work experience in interactive media design and development, he loves to imagine as much as he enjoys to build.

ROLES:

- o Graphic Artist
- o Flash Developer
- o Multimedia Developer